Beignets, Grasshoppers, Cajuns, and Creole (US1557-81)

Explore Historic Plantations and Spirits of New Orleans, Louisiana for Four Days & Three Nights at Either the St. James Hotel, the Windsor Court Hotel, the Hyatt Centric French Quarter New Orleans, or the Maison Dupuy Hotel with Economy Class Air for Two, Including the Oak Alley Plantation Tour, a Walking Food Tour of the French Quarter and an Original Cocktail Walking Tour

New Orleans is a city that only can be described with a palette of the most vibrant colors, and this is your chance to taste the flavors of the Big Easy! Your tour of the Oak Alley Plantation will mesmerize you with the complex history of this plantation and its historic landscape. Then take a food-filled journey through the lively Vieux Carré (Old Square), where the smells of sweets and spice fill the streets, followed by a "spirited" exploration of the city as you make your way to historic bars and sample classic concoctions.

Take a step back in time to the 19th century with a stay in the heart of the Central Business District at the St. James Hotel, which puts you within a short walking distance of all the major attractions, including the French Quarter, the Superdome, and all the jazz you could want! For the epitome of personal luxury, the four-star and four-diamond Windsor Court Hotel invites you to relax in its classic elegance. A historic setting, modern amenities and excellent service beckon you to the Hyatt French Quarter New Orleans, which sits adjacent to the famed Bourbon Street. And for a bit of New Orleans charm, the distinct Maison Dupuy Hotel gives you the perfect combination of luxurious relaxation and the hustle and bustle of Bourbon Street.

Take a walk through history on your tour of the Oak Alley Plantation, which remains today as a testimonial to a bygone era. Located on the Mississippi River between the historic Louisiana cities of New Orleans and Baton Rouge, Oak Alley Plantation has been called the "Grande Dame of the Great River Road", and is known its simple authenticity and grandeur. At the time Oak Alley was built, the River Region sugar industry was flourishing, and Oak Alley was an agricultural empire, one of multiple stately plantations lining the banks of the Mississippi.

Eat your way through the French Quarter on a food-filled three-hour walking tour! Your expert guide will accompany you on a sensory journey to famous eateries and markets in New Orleans' oldest quarter and along the river. Due to the custom nature of the tour, you may sample sugar-dusted beignets at Cafe du Monde, gin-infused chocolate or chargrilled oysters. As you wander through the French Quarter, colorful signs for traditional poboys or meat-filled muffulettas may beckon you. Don't resist! Along the way, learn about New Orleans' rich and complex culinary history. By the end of the tour, you'll have a full belly and a better understanding of the fundamental dishes that makes up New Orleans cuisine.

Discover New Orleans 'spirited' side on a fun and informative cocktail tour! You'll rub shoulders with local imbibers at historic bars and restaurants and sip on classic concoctions like the Sazerac and Pimm's Cup. At each legendary venue, admire the mixology of notable bartenders and learn the origins and truths of centuries-old cocktails from your guide. Immerse yourself in 2.5 hours of sampling and storytelling from your guide and savvy mixologists, and learn the famous – and sometimes scandalous – histories of drink and drinking culture in New Orleans.
